Mr. William Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

I am writing on behalf of [redacted], a very bright and capable individual who is seeking employment - preferably on the Middle East desk - with the Central Intelligence Agency. She was a long-time resident of my congressional district in Upstate New York; she holds a Ph.D. in Middle Eastern affairs from the University of Rochester, possesses outstanding credentials; she has the personality traits that I believe you consider essential for Agency employees; she is, in short, someone that I believe would be of interest to you and of benefit to the CIA. STAT

She applied for employment in November 1982, but was told there are no openings in June of this year. I am not convinced that her application wasn't somehow lost in a paper shuffle and would appreciate your looking at it one more time. I know you are fully aware of the difficult situations that exist throughout the Middle East, as well as the tremendous problems these pose for our country. I think people with [redacted] knowledge and experience can add much to the Agency's ability to analyze information and events in this troubled region. STAT

Bill, I appreciate your attention to this matter and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Frank Horton
